News of Ethiopia
There was a touch of Ethiopia in the news published by the Citizen that day. One of its articles relates the following: "Mid the din and clash of arms, the screech of shells and whistle of bullets, which are a continual feature in the status of our beleaguered city, inclidents of havpiness often arise incidents of happiness often arise to vary in a cheery way the phases of so stern a scene. On the evening of the twentleth, with gayety, myrth and good feeling, at a prominent hespital of this city, through the ministerial offices of a chaplain or a gallant regiment, Charles Royall, Prince Imperial of Ethiopia, of the Barberigo family, espoused the lovely and accomplished Rosa Gluss, Arch Dutchess of Senegambia, one of the most celebrated Princes of the Laundressian Regime. The affair was conducted with great magnificence, though as is usual in troublesome incldents of happiness often arise

Horse Trading
Freedoct 10 a 201 it is reported has ent one of the Como in White House chas to Transportation Commissioner Jeseth B lasiman ordering that official to call off the doks and leave railroads to inconscions

Last year railroad management and labor came to an understanding about the care of employes affected b, the consolida-tions which Commissioner Eastman has been advocating as the only means of pre-serving private ownership of the vast and unwieldy rall industry. The agreement was unusually liberal in his terms. Obvious ly powerful influences bad persuaded rail road management to go much further in dealing with employes than ordinarily is the rule in such cases

If railrands are to be given more free door under a revised new deal policy an explanation for the liberallix of last weeks ngreement is available. There has been some horse trading. Rail management has come away with the horse such as it is and the federal government has retained the harness and a promise to take back the nag if its real owner finds himself unable to manage it

Commissioner Eastman's office expires automatically June 16 Throughout he has been given no effective authority Yel because it always was possible that his ideas would become rules railroads found it necessary to play on the safe side.
